

Hospitality THE LEADERS OF TOMORROW
RUDDING PARK 2026

Monday 23rd March 2026
Rudding Park, North Yorkshire
Free to Attend

Created by young people, for young people, this bold, conference celebrates the next generation of hospitality talent across York and North Yorkshire.

This high energy, one day event will bring together future leaders from every corner of the region's hospitality and tourism industry.

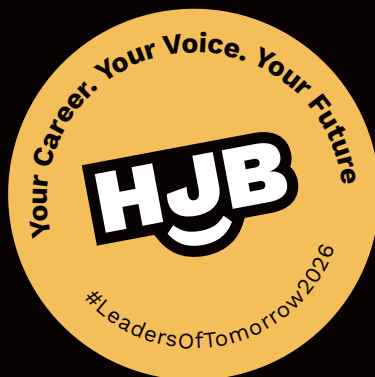

Expect powerful stories, practical learning, and genuine connection, all designed to build skills, confidence, and pride in one of Yorkshire's most dynamic sectors. This isn't another conference. It's a movement for the future of hospitality.

Why Attend

If you're under 30 and working in hospitality or tourism across York and North Yorkshire, whether you're just starting out, managing a team, or dreaming big about your next step, this event is for you.

You'll take part in inspiring workshops on resilience, personal branding, and career development, hear from real voices shaping the industry today, and meet others who share your passion for people, creativity, and hard work.

Our keynote speaker will be announced soon! Follow the Hospitality Junior Board on LinkedIn and Instagram for the latest news and updates about the event.

Employers and mentors are also encouraged to support their young team members to attend and be part of this exciting experience.
